THE ESSENCE OF DANISH CHRISTMAS

Nikolaj Klitgaard has spent most of his life designing various items made in wood. Despite his young age, he is regarded as a renowned craftsman.

Jul is a timeless collection of Christmas decorations designed by Nikolaj Klitgaard. The characters stand for everything associated with Danish Christmas and the impressions they create are unique.

Jul is made up of two collections: the hanging ornaments in oak wood - which consists of five components: Bell, Heart, Cone, Tree and Angel; and the standing ornaments in teak wood - which consists of Tree and Angel, both available in small and large size.
